

Interinstitutional Faculty Senate Position Description

The Interinstitutional Faculty Senate is comprised of faculty representatives from the 7 Oregon public universities and the Oregon Health & Sciences University. IFS meets every other month during the academic calendar year. Meetings typically begin Friday afternoon and end in the early afternoon on Saturday. During IFS meetings, representatives from each institution provide a campus report. Other agenda items often include conversations with representatives from the HECC and representatives from the Oregon State Legislature. After each IFS meeting, WOU IFS senators give a report to the WOU Faculty Senate and seek WOU faculty guidance on higher education policy issues under statewide consideration.

The next 4 meetings have been tentative set for the following locations. Dates are to be determined.

January, 2017	University of Oregon
March, 2017	Oregon Health & Sciences University
May, 2017	Western Oregon University
October, 2017	Oregon Institute of Technology
