About Western Oregon University:

Western Oregon University is a regional public, mid-sized university – committed to changing lives, strengthening communities and transforming our world. Located in Monmouth, the heart of Oregon’s lush Willamette Valley, WOU is about 20 minutes from Salem, the state’s capital and about 75 minutes from Portland, the state’s cultural hub.

Western is one of Oregon’s oldest public institutions of higher education and was incorporated into the state system as a teacher training institution in 1882. The university offers undergraduate and graduate degrees in arts and sciences, education and professional areas. It’s known for small class sizes, a focus on sustainability and a diverse liberal arts education in a student-centered environment. Western is an emerging Hispanic Serving institution, with 41% of undergraduates being students of color.

Position Summary:

The Coordinator of Clinical Placements position supports the Office of Clinical Practice and Licensure by serving as a direct liaison to partner school, district, and agency contacts. This position coordinates clinical placements for student teachers, practica, and associated experiences in preK-12 settings. Responsibilities extend to all aspects of arranging, facilitating, coordinating, and evaluating placements, including arranging any necessary compensation, trouble-shooting problem situations, and generally seeking to enhance the quality of clinical partnerships, practices, and experiences. This is faculty work, as intimate understanding of program curriculum and the developmental arc of an educator is essential to discuss roles and responsibilities during practica and internships. The Coordinator of Clinical Placements serves all educator licensure programs including, but not limited to, the undergraduate education program, the Master of Arts in Teaching program, the Special Education program, the Early Interventionist program and placements in ESOL, Reading, and the Principal program.

The position primarily requires on-campus in-person service but may include occasional travel to partner sites and remote work. The Office of Clinical Practice and Licensure supports the division of Education and Leadership in delivering several preliminary licensure educator programs that require clinical, student teaching placements in partner school districts, education service districts (ESDs), and other appropriate settings. This position is full-time 1.0 FTE for the academic year (mid-September through mid-June) and 1.0 FTE for the equivalent of six weeks in the summer, with a full-time schedule through the end of June and all of September, with an approximately half-time schedule in August and minimal hours in July. The applicant must hold or be eligible to hold a preliminary Oregon educator license. We encourage applications for individuals from diverse backgrounds to apply. An excellent benefits package is included.
