

Sophia R. Becker

888 N. Craven Drive #22

Monmouth, OR 97361

503-838-0000

sbecker@yahoo.com

PROFILE

Psychology undergraduate experienced in day care and mentoring at-risk youth; skilled in child counseling techniques and Spanish, and a dedicated team player who strives to reach underserved populations; seeking position as Counseling Intern with Salem Montessori

EDUCATION

B.A., Psychology with Spanish Minor

Expected June 2013

Western Oregon University, Monmouth, OR

- Hampton Honors Scholar
- Mexico Study Abroad Program
 - Interacted with native residents using fluent Spanish. Studied people and culture while living with Mexican host family.
 - Conducted informational interview with Marriage & Family Therapist

COUNSELING RELATED EXPERIENCE

Counseling Intern

August 2012-Present

Step-up Counseling Services, Dallas, OR

- Render counseling services to participants including individual and/or group consultation
- Administer, interpret, and evaluate the results of assessment tests
- Counsel individual participants on methods to achieve program prescribed objectives
- Compile and keep accurate records of client interaction

Assistant

September 2010-June 2011

Psychology Department, Monmouth, OR

- Efficiently handled research requests from faculty
- Interacted with peers, supervisor, and faculty in a professional manner
- Mediated customer conflict
- Processed confidential information
- Reviewed required forms to ensure accuracy

ACTIVITIES & COMMUNITY INVOLVEMENT

Metro Boys & Girls Club, Salem, OR

Summers 2011 & 2012

- Mentored at risk youth in decision making skills
- Connected with parents and sibling to increase accountability for program participant at home
- Documented progress interactions through weekly reports to supervisor

WOUPSA (Western Oregon University Psychology Student Association), Monmouth, OR

2011-Present

- Coordinated design and implementation of publicity for campus-wide events
- Organized weekly meetings